

The Woman Jesus Called Mother ~ The Rest of the Story

An original drama by Maggie Rowe ©2010

The year: AD 45, about a dozen years after Jesus' crucifixion and resurrection.

Mary, formerly of Nazareth, is now in her late 50's and is living under the care of the Apostle John.

Scene One: "Consider it pure joy, my brothers and sisters, whenever you face trials
of many kinds..."

Scene Two: "If any of you lacks wisdom, he should ask God."

Scene Three: "Blessed is the one who perseveres under trial."

Scene Four: "Dear brothers and sisters, what's the use of saying you have faith if you don't prove it by your actions?"

Scene Five: "Why, you do not even know what will happen tomorrow!"

Scene Six: "Every good and perfect gift is from above."

Scene Seven: "Dear friends, be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to get angry."

Scene Eight: "L'shanah Haba'ah Birushalayim!"

Scene Nine: "We all make many mistakes, but those who control their tongues can also control themselves in every other way."

Scene Ten: "Be patient, then, until the Lord's coming."

All Scripture taken from the Letter of James, NIV and NLT.

Points to Ponder

“During Jesus’ public ministry, neither James nor the other siblings were followers of Jesus. They had even tried to end his ministry and bring him home to his responsibilities as eldest son (Mark 3:31-35; cp. John 7:3-5). A personal resurrection appearance convinced James that Jesus was the Christ (1 Cor. 15:7), and he was with the others in the upper room when the Spirit was given on Pentecost (Acts 1:14; 2:1-3). James became the leader of the Jerusalem church after Peter’s arrest and departure from Jerusalem (Acts 12:1-3; 15:13-21; 21:18; Gal. 1:19; 2:9).”

NLT Study Bible, p. 2111

A mother’s faith is sometimes all she has. Faith that she is doing the best she can with the wisdom God provides. Faith that God is with her children when she cannot be. Faith that children who reject Jesus as Lord may yet one day come into His kingdom.

– The Rest of the Story

“They all met together and were constantly united in prayer, along with Mary the mother of Jesus, several other women, and the brothers of Jesus.” – Acts 1:14

“Jesus also did many other things. If they were all written down, I suppose the whole world could not contain the books that would be written.”

– The Apostle John (John 21:25)
